PRESENTATION

I am a Film Journalist editor from Argentina, (currently in San Francisco) under the pseudonym Manuel Bláuab. I have been working for Latin America and Europe for the last four years, (e.g. Alta Peli in Spanish, as the Film Festival Editor and General Contributor, also the Argentina Independent and Berlin Film Journal, from Germany, both in English).

My work includes film reviews, columns and full coverage of important and international events like, Oscars, Film Festivals and Film Premieres around the world.

My contribution to your company would be tremendous. You can see that my expertise on the field is not easy to find in such a young age as I know about the independent, the film festival and the Hollywood scene all in once. Plus, the fact that I am not just a film critic but a film journalist who studied filmmaking, being able to know even more about the cinema industry and all what is related to.

Thanks for your time and consideration,

Kind Regards.
